Mr. Graham of Granville, for the Committee on Rules, reports to the House on H. R. 177, in regard to the appointment of clerks by the House committees, that, by virtue of instructions therein contained, the committee submits the following report, which is adopted by the House and ordered spread upon the Journal:

Report of Committee on Rules on H. R. 177, resolution in regard to the appointment of clerks for the House committees:

The Committee on Rules respectfully report: That, in obedience to H. R. 177, we met in the Speaker's room immediately upon the adjournment of the House, January 14, 1905. Present—Graham of Granville, Chairman; Winborne, Warren, Turlington and Fowler. A quorum being present, we took up said resolution for consideration. We find the preamble to said resolution somewhat misleading, in that it states many of the standing committees of the House have clerks, while we find that there are thirty-eight committees of the House and six joint committees on part of the House and Senate; that of said committees those on the Judiciary, Finance, and Propositions and Grievances only are entitled to a clerk each, and the chairman of the Committee on the Revision of the Laws is authorized by Rule 61 to employ such clerical assistance as may be necessary to complete the work during the session of the General Assembly.

That, so far, clerks have been employed by the Committees on the Judiciary, Finance, Propositions and Grievances, and Revision of the Laws; that the work of the Committee on the Revision of the Laws is of such a nature that the clerk will be constantly employed and his services cannot be divided with another committee.

That for the present the clerks to the Committees on the Judiciary and Finance could also assist such committees as may have for the time being an excess of work, and the clerk to the Committee on Propositions and Grievances can perform the clerical work of the Committee on Regulation of the Liquor Traffic.

We recommend that the Committee on Regulation of the Liquor Traffic meet on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, so as not to conflict with the Committee on Propositions and Grievances, which meets on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

We do not find that it has been customary to employ clerks to other committees, and in our opinion the necessity for such clerks does not exist.

Respectfully submitted,

GRAHAM of Granville,

For Committee.

The Special Committee on House Expenditures beg leave to submit to the House the following report:

1. They call attention to the fact that, in order to expeditiously and properly perform the duties imposed upon the members of the House within the limited period of sixty days, that it is necessary that the House should be well equipped with employees. The duties to be discharged by such employees are numerous and important. A large number of employees is necessary because of the fact that the period of the legislative session is so short that systematization and organization is difficult. The committee has examined, and after such examination and such investigation as the committee has been able to make, we respectfully recommend that the business of the House could be properly performed by the employment of twelve pages and twenty-two employees.

Among the employees there are a large number of Confederate soldiers, many of them disabled, and the committee trusts that, in so far as it is practicable, these shall be retained. The committee further begs leave to suggest that if any member will carefully investigate, as we have tried to do, the requirements of the House, he will ascertain that there are a large number of important duties to be performed by the employees of the House. We respectfully submit that this recommendation be referred to the Speaker of the House and Sergeant-at-Arms for such action as they shall deem just and wise in accordance with the suggestions herein made.

W. A. Stewart,
J. D. Murphy,
C. W. Mitchell.

EVENING SESSION.

The House meets pursuant to recess at 8:30 o'clock P. M., and is called to order by Mr. Speaker Guion.

Mr. Murphy of Rowan, for the Special Committee to consider the matter of the South Dakota suit and the Schafer bond matters, sends up a report, which is read by the Clerk, and upon motion of Mr. McNinch, seconded by Mr. Feimster, a unanimous vote of thanks is extended to the committee, and the report is received and ordered spread upon the Journal, as follows:

March 1, 1905.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina:

GENTLEMEN:—The committee to whom was referred the matter of the South Dakota judgment and the Schafer bonds, to the end that they might carefully consider the same and make some recommendation to the General Assembly, do now respectfully make the following report:

1. That the Governor of the State, with the approval of the Council of State, be directed to settle the South Dakota judgment in the manner deemed by them best to protect the State's interest.

2. After a careful consideration of the bonded indebtedness known as the Schafer Brothers bonds, being 242 bonds of the par value of $1,000 each, with interest on the same for twenty-nine years, and after consultation with the attorneys of said bondholders, the committee unanimously agreed to recommend the following:

The State is to pay the bondholders $892 per bond, which is less than par value, and amounts to $215,864. This is $447,216 less than the principal and interest of the 242 bonds, $179,136 less than the first proposition suggested by the bondholders to the Governor; $86,136 less than the first written proposition made by the bondholders, printed in the newspapers as a letter to the Governor, and $26,136 less than the ultimatum that they offered at the first meeting of this committee. The $215,864 recommended by the committee, and accepted by the bondholders, is based (though less) on the settlement of 1879, allowing 25 cents on the dollar, and interest for twenty-four months, with interest on the deferred coupons, this being in strict accord with the settlement of 1879 and the Democratic platform.

We believe this settlement is both honest and just, and we therefore recommend that the General Assembly accept and approve it.

Respectfully submitted,

R. B. Glenn,
A. C. Zollicoffer,
A. M. Scales,
J. R. Gordon,
H. B. Coffield,
Walter Murphy,
Committee.

We concur in the above:

J. Bryan Grimes,
B. F. Dixon,
B. R. Lacy,
J. Y. Joyner,
Council of State.

March 2, 1905.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of North Carolina:

GENTLEMEN:—You know that since my introduction into office I have done everything in my power to bring about an honest and just settlement of what is known as the South Dakota judgment and the Schafer bonds. Some time ago I sent to your honorable body a special message urging you to take some action in regard to both matters. In compliance with this message you appointed two gentlemen on the part of the Senate and three on the part of the House, who, with the Governor, were a committee to act with the Council of State, to take into consideration both the South Dakota judgment and the settlement of the Schafer bonds. This committee met and had no difficulty in arriving at the conclusion, that in regard to the South Dakota judgment the matter should be left to the Executive Department to take such action as it deemed wisest and best. In regard to the Schafer bonds, counsel for the bondholders were invited to be present at the meeting, and they made a proposition to take par for their bonds, in other words, $242,000 for the 242 bonds held by them. It is also well known to you that this is a very large reduction in the first proposition indicated by the bondholders. First they suggested $395,000, then $350,000, then, in writing, $302,000, and at the meeting of the committee, $242,000. The committee rejected this proposition, but made them a proposition of $225,840, this to include the South Dakota judgment as well as the amount of their bonds. This proposition was not accepted by the bondholders, and after much discussion your committee, as a finality, offered to give the bondholders $892 cash each, for the 242 bonds, making $215,864. This proposition has been accepted by the attorneys for the bondholders, and now awaits your approval.

I, therefore, as Chief of the Executive Department, urge upon your honorable body to enact a law allowing the Treasurer to issue bonds sufficient to pay off this amount. These bonds can be sold at a premium and will bear interest at only 4 per cent. per annum. The $442,000 worth of stock securing these bonds pays a dividend of 7 per cent. per annum. The $250,000 worth of bonds necessary to pay off the South Dakota judgment and the Schafer bondholders would amount to $10,000 a year in interest; the dividends on the stock amount to $30,940; so you see that the difference between the interest and the dividends is $20,940 a year, which difference will pay off these new bonds in less than twenty years.

In view of the decision of the Supreme Court just rendered, and the temper of the Court as shown by that decision, and the fact that the principal and interest on the Schafer bonds is $663,080, and that we are settling the same for $215,864, thus saving to the State, in case the bonds could be enforced, $447,216, it would be folly to run the risk of a suit and judgment for $663,080 on the Schafer bonds, especially when to this would be added lawyers' fees and cost of litigation.

This settlement was made on a basis of 25 cents on the dollar, with interest on the same, and is, therefore, in strict accord with the instructions that we have received from the Democratic platform. It is also an honest and fair settlement of this controversy, reflecting credit upon North Carolina, and should meet the hearty approval and support of all good citizens who desire to do right, and at the same time uphold the dignity of the State.

The committee appointed by your honorable body, though using all dispatch possible consistent with a careful investigation, could not make its report or introduce the act to carry its report into effect before last evening. Being a roll-call measure it must be read on three separate days in each House, thus requiring the Legislature to remain in session at least until March 6th, and to avoid any question as to the validity of the bonds, thereby enhancing their value on the market, it would be wiser to remain until March 7th. The per diem of members ceases March 4th, so it will take both patriotism and personal sacrifice to remain over, but true North Carolinians have never shirked a duty, and, therefore, with confidence, I appeal to your State love, and ask that you remain and properly ratify the work of your committee.

Again, therefore, I earnestly urge and recommend that the unanimous report of the committee be accepted and adopted by your honorable body, and at once enacted into a law, to the end that this dark cloud that has been for years overhanging and casting a shadow over our beloved State may at once be swept away.

Respectfully submitted,

R. B. GLENN,
Governor.

PROTEST.

WHEREAS, at this session of the General Assembly of North Carolina an act has passed known as the Ward Bill; and

WHEREAS, the aforesaid act is, in my opinion, a political make-shift and not a measure beneficial to the people of North Carolina, being in its effect an abridgment of the rights of the people, a blow to local self-government and a violation of the right of suffrage, and absolutely in opposition to the platform and principles of my party, and

WHEREAS, such legislation is contrary to the pledges and provisions made by me to my people and absolutely at variance with my interpretation of the Democratic platform; now,

Therefore, in the exercise of my constitutional right I hereby file my protest against such legislation, upon the grounds set forth in the premises, and upon the additional grounds that said legislation in its effect deprives men of property without due recompense; and further, in establishing these grades of suffrage in North Carolina upon the question of prohibition, which I hereby submit is not in accordance with the principles of a republican form of government, and contrary to the constitutional rights of all the people.

We, the undersigned members of the House of Representatives in the General Assembly of 1905, respectfully file protest against the methods of appointing the boards of education in

We protest against the partisanship used in this body in thus dealing with the great educational problem of our State.
